A REVIEW OF THE FAMILY HISTORIES OF TWO EARLY PENNSYLVANIA SETTLERS

By Wayne H. Willeke, Ann Arbor Michigan

The First Zehner-Hoppes Family History, by Mrs. Ellen Priscilla Zehner Carpenter. South Bend, Indiana, 1939. No index. Purchase from the Selby Publishing Co., 3405 Zartman Road, Kokomo, Indiana 46902.

This illustrated family history, the lineage of Adam Zehner, 1726-1809, and his wife, Maria Mertz, tells the story of a young Swiss-German who came to Schuykill Co., Pennsylvania, from the Black Forest in 1754. Documentation from the Pennsylvania Archives and many other sources is mentioned in the text and in the section on notes and observations, as well as the appendix.

Adam and Maria Zehner raised fifteen children. The history covers the families of Peter, John, David, George, Henry, Philip, Adam, Catherine Beltz, Magdalena Hauser, Abraham, Susannah Witherstein, Daniel, Mary Hauser, Esther Zimmerman and Elizabeth Dretsbach.

One chapter is included on Zion Church in West Penn Township, Schuykill Co., Pennsylvania. The Zehners are Lutheran and many of the early members of the family are buried in Zion Cemetery.

Today the Zehner family is scattered throughout many states including Ohio, Indiana and Michigan. Other surnames mentioned are Wertman, Klingerman, Sivey, Willeke, Kunkel and Duebel.

My mother's maiden name is Zehner and Adam Zehner is my ggg-grandfather.

Haller-Hollar-Holler Genealogy, by Amelia C. Gilreath. Nokesville, Virginia, 1981. Name index. 284 pages. Purchase from the author, 14200 Vint Road, Nokesville, Virginia 22123.

This nicely written, illustrated family history is the lineage of Heinrich Haller, 1689-1761, and his wife Anna Catharina Carle. This Swiss couple came to Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, from Alsace in 1733. The book covers the ten generations that began with Petter, Anna C. Ream, Johann H., Anna C. King, Elizabeth D. Lescher and John N. Haller. Documentation was derived from trips to Salt Lake City, Europe and many sites in Pennsylvania and Virginia.

One chapter is included for the lineage of Dr. Joseph Irwin. The Irwin family of Shenandoah Co., Virginia, is connected with the Irvings and Irvines of Scotland.

Today the Haller family is scattered throughout many states including Virginia, Ohio and Indiana. Other surnames mentioned include Miller, Helsley and Sivey. Both the Haller and Sivey families were engaged in the Miller trade.

John Sivey, 1775-1849, is my ggg-grandfather and Heinrich Haller is my 5th great-grandfather.

DECLARATION OF JOHN PORTER FOR REVOLUTIONARY WAR SERVICE BENEFITS, 1832

The declaration below is recorded in Probate Calendar I, page 86 and following, found in the Washtenaw County Courthouse.

Territory of Michigan, Washtenaw County, in the Court of Probate held at the registers office in said County on the second day of November 1832. Present James Kingsley, Esq., Judge, and John Allen, Register.

Personally appeared in the open Court before the Judge of Probate, the same being a Court of Record, having a seal and Clerk...now setting John Porter a resident of the Township of Panama in the County of Washtenaw and Territory of Michigan Aged seventy nine years on the 13th day of January last past, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 that he entered the service of the United States in the year 1776 at the Town of Bethlehem in the County of Litchfield in the state of Connecticut the place of his Nativity and of his then residence. That he was enlisted by an Ensign Elisha Clark in the spring of that year he remembers a certain Jonathan Bellamy was lieutenant in said Company and he thinks the Captain's name was Hurd. Soon after he enlisted he was ordered to New York and in a fortnight after his arrival there he was ordered to Fort Washington on the North River where he was employed at his trade, which is that of a Carpenter in said service until his discharge in the fall. He served at this time six months being the full term of his enlistment and had a regular discharge but the same has been lost by time and accident and he cannot now remember the Officers name who signed it not having seen it for a great many years nor can he remember with certainty the name of the Colonel who commanded the Regiment being an artificer and employed constantly in that department he was little under the immediate eyes of officers. Soon after he returned from this Campaign he again enlisted and served in the same capacity for eight months most of the time on the North River. Afterwards he enlisted again and served eight months and lastly near the Close of the Revolutionary war he again enlisted and served a tour of nine months that in each tour he served his time of enlistment through and was regularly discharged but the documents have been lost many years and he has no written evidence of his services which amounted in all to thirty one months. He was once discharged at Morristown in New Jersey and at West Point but on account of his being constantly employed as a Carpenter he was in none of the battles fought during the war. He well remembers the arrival of General Lafayette and the great rejoicing of the army on account of the Birth of the Dauphin of France. He knows of no person now living who was with him in the service. He had a brother Benjamin who came to see him while he was --- in the army and who the last time he heard from him lived at Batavia in Genesee County New York but has not heard from him for about two years and whether he is living or not he cannot say. He hereby relinquished every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity and declares that his name is not on the Pension Role of the agency of any state or Territory. John Porter sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

Upon interrogations put by the Court and to the applicant he further answers under oath that he was born in Bethlehem as stated in the foregoing declaration that he has no record of his age he lived when called into service in the same town of Bethlehem that he cannot being aged and infirm remember with certainty whether he enlisted as a Volunteer after the first tour or was first drafted and then enlisted. He cannot state much concerning the officers as his memory is poor and his employment being at his trade he was not much with the officers. He remembers Colonel Webb and well remembers General Washington. He has already stated that he always received a discharge when his term of enlistment expired but has not got them they have long been lost. I am known in my present neighbourhood to John White, Elder John Twiss minister of the Baptist Church, Polly Pease and maybe others. I have resided in Reading & Langersfield in the state of New York and about three years in Panama aforesaid. John Porter sworn and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

We John Twiss a Clergyman residing in the County of Washtenaw in the Territory of Michigan and John White residing in the same County hereby certify that we are well acquainted with John Porter who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration. That we believe him to be about eighty years of age. That he is reputed in the neighbourhood where he lives to have been in the War of the Revolution that though he has considerably failed in the power and faculties of his mind yet he sustains the Character of on honest sober and pious Man and we fully concur in the opinion that he was such a soldier and that he fully sustains the character that was given and further saith not. John T. Twiss, John White, subscribed and sworn before me this 17th day of Nov. 1832. James Kingsley, Judge of Probate.

And the said Court doth hereby declare its opinion after the investigation of the matter and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the war department that the above applicant was a soldier of the Revolution and served as stated and the Court further Certifies that it appears to them that John Twiss who has signed the preceding Certificate is a Clergyman resident in said County and that John White who has signed the same is a resident of the same County and is a Credible person and that their statements are entitled to credit. James Kingsley, Judge.

DECLARATIONS OF MARTIN DUBOIS, ADAM OVEROCKER, DANIEL KELLOGG AND DANIEL A. CORYELL FOR REVOLUTIONARY WAR SERVICE BENEFITS, 1832

The abbreviated declarations below are recorded in Probate Calendar I, pages 92 and 93, found in the Washtenaw County Courthouse. The original documents have not been found at this date (1990).

At a Court of Probate held in and for the County of Washtenaw in the Territory of Michigan, at the registers office in said County on the 5th day of November 1832. Present James Kingsley, Esq., Judge.

Personally appeared in Open Court Martin Dubois a resident of the Township of Saline in the County and Territory aforesaid and being duly sworn according to Law Presented his declaration for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of a Pension agreeable to the Act of Congress passed 7th June 1832. The said Court after due investigation of the matter & after putting the interrogations prescribed by the War Department being satisfied that the said Declaration was entitled to Credit did order and direct the same to be place on file in this office which was accordingly done. James Kingsley, Judge.

At a Court of Probate held at the Registers Office in the County of Washtenaw on the 4th of Decbr 1832. Present James Kingsley, Esq., Judge.

Personally appeared in Open Court Adam Overocker a resident of the Township of Saline in the County and Territory aforesaid and being duly sworn according to law Presented his declaration for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of a Pension agreeable to the Act of Congress passed 7th June A.D. 1832. [Wording is the same as the first declaration.]

Personally appeared in Open Court Daniel Kellogg a resident of the Township of Saline in the County and Territory aforesaid and being duly sworn according to law Presented his declaration for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of a Pension agreeable to the Act of Congress passed 7th June A.D. 1832. [Wording is the same as the first declaration.]

At the same time and place Personally appeared in Open Court Daniel A. Coryell a Resident of Saline Township in the County of Washtenaw & Territory of Michigan and being duly sworn according to law Presented his Declaration for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of a Pension agreeable to the Act of Congress passed the 7th day of June A.D. 1832. I WISH YOU WERE HERE!

Contributed by Mary L. Liskow, Ypsilanti, Michigan

The Hemingway precursors probably lived in Yorkshire, England. At least I have found the name Thomas and Richard deHemygway at Hipperholme, Yorks in 1309. There is no longer a place called Hemygway listed in any English county. It may have been abandoned during the great bubonic plague of 1341-50 or simply moved out with the development of wool farming.

The name may have derived from "Hemingrs way" as this was a popular Scandinavian name used in Yorkshire as late as 1300.

Hemingways lived in or near Hipperholme from 1309 to as late as 1358. The family started spreading out in the 1400s even though the name continued to appear on local tax lists and subsidy rolls into 1545. Prior to 1630 Southowram, in the Calder Valley, was important to the clan as families moved from the moors to more fertile areas. Most of the moves were from ten to sixty miles in distance.

John was a much used given name with new Christian names being added from time to time. The one name (my immigrant ancestor) Ralph Hemingway has never appeared. The Yorkshire Hemingways were landowners who left a paper trail of wills and gifts to charities.

Ralph, I wish you were here - did you change your name, were you misunderstood by some list maker, or were you a very poor penman?

Documents show you in Roxbury, Massachusetts Bay Colony, in 1634 where you married Elizabeth Hewes. She was a woman from a prominent family. Ralph, how did you become a major land owner, a member of the church, and a leading citizen in so few years after arriving as an indentured servant? Ralph, I wish you were here!

Much of the above information has been derived from Dr. Arlene Eakle's reports to the Hemingway Book Committee as well as "West Riding Surnames" by George Redmonds in Nexus, Volume V, issue 3 (a publication of the New England Historical and Genealogical Society).

A NEW YEAR'S EVE GIFT FOR MRS. ALLEN

PRESENTATION. The many friends of Mrs. James W. Allen, of Lodi, assembled New Year's Eve, at the School House near Mrs. Allen's residence, where they proceeded thither, taking the family by surprise and presenting Mrs. Allen with a neat silver cake-basket, and one dozen silver forks, as a slight token...of their regard as the Choir of the Congregational Church of Lodi. Mrs. Allen has been the principle Soprano singer for many years. The gifts were presented in a brief address of Mr. Austin H. Wood, leader of the Choir, and the occasion was a pleasant one to all who were present.

WILLIAM ELI PARKER BIBLE RECORD

Contributed by Elnor Coles Parker, Ann Arbor, Michigan

James Parker, the father of William Eli Parker, came to Washtenaw County from Quainton, Buckinghamshire, England, in 1834. He came with his wife Mary Simms Parker and daughter Elizabeth who was born in Quainton on February 28, 1834. James bought land first in Scio Township, then Lodi Township, and finally in Ann Arbor Township on Dixboro Road, where he lived until he died in 1893.

James Parker was my husband Ivan William Parker's great-grandfather; William Eli Parker was Ivan's grandfather; Floyd William Parker who also lived on Dixboro Road was Ivan's father. Ivan and I have three sons, William Walter and twins James Floyd and Gerald (Jerry) Raleigh Parker.

The Parker Mill line of the family came from a William Parker, born in Quainton, who was a half-brother to James Parker. They had the same father, John Parker, but James' mother Hannah died, and William was a son by John's third wife Ann. Three of John's sons came to America and one son Edmund remained in Quainton. George came to Washtenaw County and lived with James in Lodi Township. He married James' daughter Ann and moved to Laingsburg, Michigan.

William Eli Parker Bible Record

The William Eli Parker Bible has no cover and pages are missing from the beginning. The half-title page at the beginning of the New Testament reads as follows: The New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, translated out of the original Greek; and with the former translations diligently compared and revised. Philadelphia, William W. Harding, 1872.
